Thank you for your letter of 31 May concerning the application of Mr. [redacted] for employment with this Agency.

Mr. [redacted] was interviewed by our Personnel Office on 20 April, at which time he supplied us with the necessary application forms. During the interview, Mr. [redacted] was informed of our policy which requires that an applicant presently employed in another Government agency must obtain a statement of availability from that agency. He was also advised that we are doing relatively little hiring at the level in which he is interested. Since we heard nothing further from him, we assumed that he had considered it best not to request a letter of availability from his present employer.

We have retained Mr. [redacted] application and, should he choose to provide the necessary statement of availability, we shall be glad to give his application further consideration.

Thanks again for your interest. Please let me know if I may be of further service.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

OP/ [redacted] pe (6 Jun 56)

Honorable Estes Kefauver
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Kefauver:

We have your letter dated 31 May 1956 concerning
Mr. [redacted] of Washington, D. C.

Mr. [redacted] was interviewed in our offices on 20 April 1956 at which time he supplied us with the usual application forms. He was not, however, aware of our requirement that he must obtain a statement from his present U. S. Government employer of a willingness for us to consider his application. We adhere strictly to this requirement and so informed Mr. [redacted]. Since we have not received the statement we have not given his application further consideration. While we are doing relatively little hiring at the level desired by Mr.
[redacted], we will be glad to retain his application for possible future use provided we are furnished a statement of availability.

Thank you for your interest, and if I may be of further service please let me know.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director
